

CHAPTER VII

DIVISIONAL ACCOUNTANTS

7. ORGANISATION

7.1 the Divisional accountants are constituted in a separate cadre with its own leave and training reserve under the administrative control of the Accountant General. This cadre is intended to provide trained Accountants for public works divisions or other independent executive charge.

Note: In Jammu & Kashmir, Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh, the cadre of Divisional Accountants is administered by the respective state Governments. In Sikkim there is no separate cadre of Divisional Accountants. Accordingly, the instructions contained in the succeeding paragraphs of this chapter will not be applicable to them.

Recruitment

The Recruitment to the post of divisional accountant is regulated by the Indian Audit & Accounts Department (Divisional accountants) recruitment rules, 1988 subject to such exceptions as may have been authorized by the Comptroller & Auditor General. Recruitment to the cadre of Divisional Accountants is made by the Accountant General by selection from the following three sources through a competitive and qualifying test called the initial recruitment examination for Divisional Accountants:

- (1) Public works Department accounts Clerks.
- (2) Accountants and clerks of A&E office and Auditor of the Audit office.
- (3) Direct Recruitment

7.2.1 The rules for initial recruitment examination are given in Annexure I to this Chapter

Note: It is desirable that persons should be employed as Divisional Accountants reasonably soon after finishing their period of probation (paragraph 7.6) the Accountant General should, therefore, see that the number of persons selected is approximately equal to the number of vacancies expected about the end of their probationary periods.

7.3 Appointment to the cadre of Divisional Accountants from whatever source, is treated as direct recruitment for the purpose of orders issued from time to time regarding the reservation of vacancies in favor of the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes and the Accountant General is personally responsible for seeing that these appointments conform to the relative orders.

7.4 It is a specific condition of the appointment that Divisional Accountants are liable for service anywhere within the jurisdiction of the state(s) whose cadre is controlled by the Accountant General concerned including his own office.

7.5 Every person appointed to the cadre of Divisional Accountants will be upon probation for a period of two years. The conformation of the Divisional Accountants will be governed by the provision of paragraph 7.12 Recruits from sources (1) and (2) will be reverted in case they are found unsuitable during the period of their training. If a direct recruit fails to pass the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination within the period of probation, offered appointment as Accountant in the A&E office against a vacancy if any.

Explanation: The periods of probation may be extended by competent authority and the case of recruits from sources (1) and (2) If an Accountant General holds for them under paragraph 7.8 the Divisional Accountants Grade examination only once in a year instead of twice, to give candidates three normal chances, The Accountant General may also, for special reasons curtail the period of probation to the extent necessary.

Note: When a person after passing the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination is placed in independent charge of the accounts of a Division he should draw pay in the regular scale of pay of Divisional Accountants that is, his pay as a probationers should be limited to so much of the probationary period, during which the person is not placed in full charge of a Divisional Accountants work.

7.8 Candidates Recruited from sources (1) and (2) who pass the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination (paragraph 7.8) are placed on a waiting list but allowed to retain their liens on their substantive appointments till they are confirmed in the Divisional Accountants cadre. Their relative seniority will be determined with reference to the date of their passing the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination. The Divisional Accountants who pass the same Divisional Accountants Grade Examination will be senior to all Divisional Accountants who pass in the subsequent examinations. The inter-se seniority of Divisional Accountants who pass the same examination will be decided on the basis of the marks obtained by them in the aggregate in the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination. Among those obtaining identical marks in aggregate. Those obtaining higher marks in the paper 'public works Accounts' will rank senior. In the case of tie in the latter paper. The marks obtained in the 'Public works accounts' paper will include the two papers on the subject (vide para 1 of Annexure II).

Practical Training

7.7 (i) Every the Divisional Accountants on the probations should irrespective of his prior experience, if any undergo course of practical training in the A&E office /Divisional and sub- divisional offices or both as indicated below.

(ii) The period of training of selected will not be less than six months and not more than twenty four months during which they will have at least two opportunities of passing the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination .the actual period will depend on the progress made by them and will be decided by the Accountant General in each case.

During the period of training in the A&E office, the Divisional office clerks should have opportunities not only for training in the works Accounts wing of the

A&E but also in such other sections of the A&E office as will help them in preparing for the section officers grade Examination if they should desire to appear in it after they have passed the divisional Accountants Grade examination and become eligible to appear under the rules. The Audit & accounts office candidates should be given training in the public works Divisional and sub-divisional offices. Recruits from either r of the above mentioned categories would be eligible to appear in the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination only after a training of at least 6 months. However, if the progress of a recruit from either source a disclosed by his work during the first 6 months of his training is not satisfactory, he will be reverted to his original office.

(iii) The Direct recruits will undergo a course of training both in the Divisional and Sub-divisional offices and in the works wing and other sections of the A&E office. In their case the period of training will be two years. They will be allowed to appear in the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination only after a training of at least one year

(iv) The Senior Deputy Accountant General /deputy accountant General (works) should be entrusted with the task of regulating and supervising this course of practical training, and subject to the instructions laid down in clauses (ii) and (iii) above and subject to such details and variations as the Accountants General any order, the training should consist of actual experience of Divisional offices and the works Accounting of the A&E office and of a through practical knowledge of the progress of compilation of divisional and sub-divisional + accounts. The Senior Deputy Accountant General /deputy accountant General (works) should require to be submitted to him monthly, a diary of the work done and of the progress made by the probationer in the several practical aspects of his training.

Note: The Accountant general may at his discretion, condone any deficiency in the minimum period of training required to be undergone before one can appear at the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination, up to a limit not exceeding two months, subject to the condition S that (i) the progress of training undergone is, in the opinion of The Accountant general satisfactory and (ii) the deficiency in the period of training is made up after taking the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination. The candidates should not be posted as Divisional Accountants till the minimum period of training is completed.

7.8 A departmental examination called the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination shall be held twice a year by the Accountant General in the month of March and September. The results of examinations conducted in the month of September should be declared before the SOGE examination to be held in the month of November so that such of the persons taking part II of the Section Officers (Accounts) grade examination in November of that year may be exempted from appearance in Public Works Accounts theory paper in case they pass the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination.

7.9 The syllabus and the rules for the examination are detailed in Annexure-II of this chapter.

7.10 The passing of the 'Divisional Accountants Grade Examination' is one of the necessary qualifications for a person to be appointed as Divisional Accountant [vide (b) of paragraph 7.12] but it does not give him a claim to be so appointed.

7.11 The conditions requiring the passing of the examination in the regional language that apply to subordinates in the Public Works Department apply equally to Divisional Accountants also.

Confirmation

7.12 All appointments to the Divisional Accountants cadre are made by selection through the Initial Recruitment Examination for Divisional Accountants and confirmation in that cadre is subject to a candidate fulfilling the following conditions.

- (a) that he has his credit-
- (i) 18 months experience in the Accounts work of Divisional or sub-divisional offices.
 - (ii) 6 months experience in the Works Accounts wing of the A&E office.
 - (iii) 12 months continuous service on probation as Divisional Accountant provided the Accountant General may, for special reasons relax any of these conditions.
- (b) that he has passed the Divisional Accountants Grade Examination prescribed in paragraph 7.8, and
- (c) that the Accountant General is satisfied that the probationer is competent to hold- independent charge of the Accounts of a division, and considers him (from reports received from the Executive Engineers) fit to hold the position of the senior member of the office establishment of a Divisional Office.

Annual Increments

7.13 The Accountant General is the authority competent to allow the annual increment to Divisional Accountants on the time scale of pay. His approval may be assumed unless an order withholding the increment has actually been received.

Efficiency Bar

7.14 Procedure and guidelines to be followed in the matter of crossing of E.B. by government servants laid down in para 10.6 will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of Divisional Accountants. They should be tried in heavy Public Works Divisions before allowing them to cross the bar.

7.15 Divisional Accountants when attached to the Accountant General's Office are liable to perform their duties without claim for any special or enhanced pay.

Confidential reports

7.16 The Accountants General having the cadre of Divisional Accountants is responsible for maintaining the Confidential Reports of the Divisional Accountants but as these Accountants work largely under the immediate supervision of the Public Works Department Officers, each Divisional Officer (Executive Engineer) will write an annual Confidential Report in Form No. 10 on the work and conduct of Divisional Accounts Officer / Divisional Accountant working under him and forward it confidentially by name to the Senior Deputy Accountant General / Deputy Accountant General controlling the cadre of Divisional Accountants.

7.16.1 The Senior Deputy Accountant General /Deputy Accountant General should cause distribution of the blank Confidential Report Forms to the Divisional Accountants by 20th March for writing self appraisal and submission to their Executive Engineers by 15th April. As soon as they fill up their self appraisal and furnish the Confidential Report Form to the Executive Engineers, the Divisional Accountants concerned should inform the Accountant General's office to enable the concerned Accountant General's office to monitor receipt of the report from the Executive Engineers at the earliest. Divisional Accountants should also fill up self-appraisal and send to the Executive Engineers immediately on their transfer as well as transfer of the concerned Executive Engineers.

7.16.2 The Executive Engineer being reporting officer in respect of Divisional Accountant shall, in the beginning of the year assign targets to each of the officers with respect of whom he is to report upon. In the case of an officer taking up a new post in the course of the reporting year, such targets/goals shall be set at the time of assumption of the new charge, The targets should be clearly known and understood by both the officers reported upon and reporting officer concerned, while fixing targets, priority should be assigned item-wise, taking into consideration the nature and the areas of the work and any special features that may be specific to the nature or the areas of work of the officer to be reported upon. The reporting officer should at regular intervals review the performance and take corrective steps by ways of advice etc. It should be endeavour of each appraiser to present the truest possible picture of the appraisee in regard to his/her performance, conduct, behavior and potential. Assessment should be confined to the appraisee's performance during the period of report only, The instructions contained at the end of the Confidential Report form should be carefully gone through before writing the Confidential Report by the reporting /reviewing officers.

7.16.3 If there are any adverse entries by the Executive Engineers/Divisional Officers in the Confidential Reports of the Divisional Accountants, they should be communicated to them immediately after the reports are signed by the Senior Deputy Accountant general /Deputy accountant General who is concerned with the administration of the cadre of Divisional Accountants as reviewing officer. When any representation against adverse entries is received it should be examined in consultation with the Executive Engineer/Divisional Officer concerned who is the reporting officer At that time the reviewing officer can also have an independent judgement with reference to information , if any , available with him and also where necessary consult the records, if any, available on the working of the Division as revealed in the relevant Inspection Report that may be available with the concerned Senior Deputy Accountant General (Works) in the Audit Office.

7.17 The Inspecting Officer inspecting the accounts of the Division should also submit to the Accountant General (A&E) through the Accountant General (Audit) a Confidential Report written in his own handwriting on the work and conduct of the Divisional Accountants /Divisional Accounts Officers covering the areas mentioned in columns A.2 and A.3 of Part-III only of Form No. 10 as judged mainly by the quality of the work inspected by him. This report should mention inter alia how far the Divisional Accountant / Divisional Accounts Officer keeps himself posted with the relevant rules and procedures relating to audit and accounts and has his personal copies of the codes and other books of reference corrected up-to-date.

7.17.1 The Divisional Accountant is himself responsible for drawing the attention of the Divisional Officer/Executive Engineer in writing to the provisions of the above as this Manual is not one of the official publications of the Public Works Department.

7.17.2 The Senior Deputy Accountant General/Accountant General concerned will bring to the notice of the Accountant general periodically good and bad reports of the Divisional Accountants.

7.18 A Confidential Report on Clerks of the Divisions who have applied for appointments under the Accountant General may also be prepared by the Inspecting Officer, if so desired by the Accountant General.

Postings

7.19 Posting of Divisional Accountants to divisions are ordered by the Senior Deputy Accountant General /Deputy Accountant General (Works) acting under the general control of the Accountant General. Except in individual cases where a qualified Divisional Accountant is not available and where a purely temporary arrangement is permissible, no person who is not eligible to be appointed to the cadre of Divisional Accountants may be posted to a division. Postings should also be designed to provide for a trained Accountant for each divisional office and, in particular, for an experienced Senior Divisional Accountant to new construction divisions or the divisions, the accounts of which are either heavy or of a peculiar nature .

7.20 Subject, as far as is practicable, to the expressed wishes of the Superintending Engineer, transfers of Divisional Accountants from one divisional office to another are made by the Accountant General at his discretion.

7.21 When a Divisional Accountant is about to be relieved of his duties in a divisional office, either permanently or temporarily, he should prepare a memorandum reviewing the accounts of the divisions. The relieving Accountant should examine it and forward it promptly with his remarks to the Accountant General through the Divisional Officer who will record such observations, as he may consider necessary.

Cadre Composition

7.22 The cadre composition of Divisional Accountants is as follows:

- | | | |
|-------|---|-----|
| (i) | Divisional Accountants (ordinary grade) | 50% |
| (ii) | Divisional Accounts Officers Grade II (Non Gazetted) | 30% |
| (iii) | Divisional Accounts Officers Grade I (Group B Gazetted) | 20% |

7.22.1 Appointment to the above-mentioned posts is to be done in accordance with the Recruitment Rules incorporated in Vol.III.

Note 1: The Percentage of posts in selection grade Divisional Accounts Officer Grade II (Non-Gazetted) and Divisional Accounts Officers Grade I (Group B Gazetted) will be worked out on the total number of regular posts of Divisional Accountants excluding seasonal and casual posts in existence on 1st July every year.

Note 2: The Posts in the higher grades of Divisional Accounts Officers Grade II (Non-Gazetted) and Divisional Accounts Officers Grade I (Group 'B' Gazetted) should be identified by the Accountant General keeping in view the well defined criteria such as volume of expenditure etc. laid down by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India.

Note 3: Vacancies in the cadre of Divisional Accounts Officer Grade I (Group 'B' Gazetted) due to non availability of eligible Accounts officers Grade II (Non-Gazetted) may be operated temporarily at the level of Divisional Accounts

Officer Grade II by appointing excess Divisional Accounts Officers Grade II over 30%, if eligible ordinary grade Divisional Accountants are available for promotion to the Divisional Accounts Officer Grade II till such time the Divisional Accounts Officer Grade II become eligible for promotion as Divisional Accounts Officer Grade I (Group B Gazetted) and the cadre composition at the prescribed percentage is reached in due course. The total posts in the two higher grades of Divisional Accountant officer Grade II and Divisional Accounts Officer Grade I should not exceed 50%.

Note 4: Divisional Accountants promoted to the higher Grades are normally to be entrusted with charges, which are heavier, more important and responsible than those entrusted to the other Divisional Accountants.

7.23 Appointment to the post of Section Officer

The ordinary grade Divisional Accountants and Divisional Accounts Officer Grade-II (Non-Gazetted) on passing the Section Officers Grade Examination Part-II are eligible for appointment to the posts of Section Officers as per recruitment rules for these posts.

Note: The ordinary grade Divisional Accountants on passing the Section Officers Grade Examination Part II will be allowed to draw special pay of Rs.40 p.m. from the date following the last date on which the examination ends. Divisional Accounts Officers Grade II who have passed Section Officers Grade Examination will have to seek reversion in writing to the post of Divisional Accountant (Rs.1400-2600) at the time of their promotion as Section Officer in the A&E offices in the scale of Rs.1640-2900 and their pay may be fixed under F.R.22C (old) by taking into account the special pay of Rs.40/- p.m. from the date following the last date on which the Section Officer's Grade Examination ends.

Incentives for Acquiring Higher or Additional Professional Qualifications

7.24 The provision of paragraph 10.8 will apply mutatis mutandis to Divisional Accountants also. The charge on account of advance increment payable to them will, however, be borne by the Government or Department which bears the cost of their pay and allowances.

Miscellaneous

7.25 The relevant provisions of Chapter VI and X on various administrative and other matters such as verification of character and antecedents, grants from the Compassionate Fund, appeals and memorials etc. not covered in this chapter will apply mutatis mutandis to Divisional Accountants also.

Note: An application for a grant from the Compassionate Fund to the family of a deceased Accountant should be submitted to and may be sanctioned only by the Government, Central or State, under which he was actually serving at the time of his death.

Grant of Honoraria to Examiners of the Examination for Recruitment to the Grade of Divisional Accountants

7.26 The officers who are appointed as examiners in connection with the Initial Recruitment Examination for Divisional Accountants and Divisional Accountants Grade Examination shall be paid honorarium, the current rates therefore are as under: -
